Week 8

Term 4

...Regional Directors' Visit...

On Monday 6th December our Regional Director, Carole McDiarmid, will be visiting the school between 11am and 1pm. We will be holding a small morning tea/lunch for her. The older students will be preparing some of the food. Parents and community members are welcome to attend.

...Enterprise Agreement Days...

We need to re-evaluate our "Flexi" days. A short survey is attached to the last page of this newsletter. We require a 100% return of these surveys, so please return yours to school as soon as possible.

Country League Rugby

Footy for Fun Day

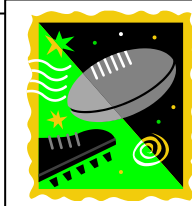

Thursday 2nd December
@ Enngonia

Parents are invited to bring their children aged 0 – 5 yrs to participate.

Parents must stay with their children for the duration of the program.

BBQ Lunch will be provided following the activities.

School children (K-6) will be involved in League Tag activities.

Christmas Hamper Raffle

Donations of goods for our Christmas Hamper raffle would be most appreciated. We need grocery and gift items. If you have anything to donate could you please kindly leave it at the school office.

Children Leaving School Grounds

All students must remain within the school grounds from the time they arrive at school until the end of the school day. The only exceptions are:

- Signed permission note from parents to go home for recess and/or lunch,
- Permission from a staff member for the student to go home.

If your child arrives home unexpectedly during school hours, please contact the school as soon as possible.

After School Learning Centre

Monday and Wednesday afternoon from 3 pm—4.30 pm.

We are offering the students a 45 minute computer session followed by a 45 minute cooking lesson.

Kim Smith and Lynn Mallon will be running the sessions but we would also appreciate any assistance from other parents or community members who would like to volunteer their time to help out.

Next sessions are Wednesday 1st December and Monday 6th December being the final session for this year.

Students will be shown a range of computer skills and then cook something delicious to have for afternoon tea.

Active After School Sport

The next Active After School Sport session will run on Thursday 2nd December.

The final Active After School session will be held on Wednesday, December 8th.

Children who do not follow the rules may not be able to participate in any further sessions.
